

Job Opportunity - Legal Internship

We are offering legal placement opportunities of durations varying from 2 to 8 weeks throughout the year. Apply NOW to experience working as one of the in-house legal team members in the Investment Banking Industry!

The internship can be full-time during the vacation and/or part-time during the term time. During your internship, you will be given opportunities to work with our in-house legal team in preparing advice and legal documents for our day-to-day business and to collaborate with our colleagues from different business units. This role will be ideal for law students who are interested in pursuing their career in legal practice, and will provide them with first-hand experience of the working culture and environment in the investment banking industry.

Informal social events will also be arranged for you to meet our colleagues from various divisions, such as our corporate finance team, securities brokerage team, customer services team, compliance team, and accounting team, etc. You would have the opportunity to establish and foster long-term relationships with professionals of different disciplines.

By the end of the internship, you should have a good idea of what and how an in-house lawyer works.

If you are interested, please send your full resume to Mr Johnny Chan, Head of Legal, China Merchants Securities (HK) Co., Ltd., 48/F, One Exchange Square, Central, Hong Kong or by email to johnnychan@cmschina.com.hk.
