

Department of Justice Career Talk on Legal Trainee Scheme

The Department of Justice operates a Legal Trainee Scheme, the objective of which is to provide legal trainees with practical training in accordance with the requirements of the Law Society of Hong Kong or the Hong Kong Bar Association and at the same time enable them to acquire experience in various types of legal work undertaken by Government lawyers.

Postgraduate Certificate in Laws (PCLL) graduates / PCLL students / potential PCLL students of the local universities who will graduate in 2025; and students of third year of undergraduate law programme in post-secondary institutions and will have obtained PCLL in 2026 are eligible to apply for the Scheme for 2025 Intake and 2026 Intake respectively. In the Career Talk, our Counsel will share their working experience with the students. In addition, details of the Legal Trainee Scheme, including eligibility, training provided and application procedure will be explained. All law students are welcome to attend.
