The Department of Justice operates a Legal Trainee Scheme, the objective of which is to provide legal trainees with practical training in accordance with the requirements of the Law Society of Hong Kong or the Hong Kong Bar Association and at the same time enable them to acquire experience in various types of legal work undertaken by Government Counsel.

Postgraduate Certificate in Laws (PCLL) graduates / PCLL students / potential PCLL students of the local universities who will graduate in 2028; and penultimate year students of undergraduate law and will have obtained PCLL in 2029 are eligible to apply for the Scheme for 2028 Intake and 2029 Intake respectively.

Our Counsel will share their working experience at the Career Talk, along with details of the Legal Trainee Scheme and the career prospects information for those aspiring to become Government Counsel.

All law students are welcome! Register now!
