Vacation Placement Programmes

Our vacation placement is a three-week programme, designed to provide an introduction to the firm and the trainee solicitor experience. We have a summer and winter vacation placement.

You will work alongside lawyers and trainees on real client matters, gaining exposure to multiple practice areas while developing key legal and professional skills. The programme also serves as a key pathway to a training contract, with you assessed during the placement and considered for progression based on your performance.

Training Contract

Our Trainee Solicitor Programme is a two-year programme, designed to provide a comprehensive introduction to the legal profession.

Trainees complete structured seat rotations across different practice areas, gaining hands-on experience while developing key legal and commercial skills with support from experienced colleagues. The programme also provides a strong foundation for qualification and long-term progression within the firm, with candidates typically progressing through our vacation placement programmes.
